The Board of Directors of Realty Funds, Inc. (the “Company”), a registered investment company, has determined to liquidate the Company effective July 31, 2008. Accordingly, July 24, 2008, will be the last day of trading on NYSE Arca, Inc. for each of the above issues and the last day on which creation unit aggregations of such issues may be purchased or redeemed. See the Funds’ Prospectus Supplement, dated June 26, 2008. For further information visit the Adelante website: <http://www.adelanteshares.com/>.

All shareholders holding the above issues on July 31, 2008, will receive cash equal to the amount of the net asset value of their shares as of July 31, 2008, which will include any capital gains and dividends into the cash portion of their brokerage accounts.

As stated in the Prospectus Supplement, effective immediately, the Funds will be in the process of liquidating their portfolios. As a result, each Fund will no longer pursue its investment objective of seeking to track the performance of its respective Index. Transaction costs incurred by each Fund in liquidating its portfolio will be included in the Fund’s net asset value.

Again, the above issues will be suspended from trading prior to the opening of business on Friday, July 25, 2008.
