Accident in Final Race for Andretti at Chicagoland; Franchitti Wins Championship

JOLIET, Ill. (Sept. 9, 2007) – Marco Andretti finished the 2007 season with a 22nd place finish in the NYSE car at Sunday’s running of the PEAK Antifreeze Indy 300 at Chicagoland Speedway. On lap 34, it appeared the rear of Andretti’s car stepped out and proceeded to send Andretti into the wall.

Andretti was transported to a local hospital as a precautionary measure and was released.

Andretti’s teammate Dario Franchitti, whose Canadian Club car also sports associate sponsorship from NYSE, captured the victory and the IndyCar Series championship. It was Franchitti’s fourth win of the season and the ninth in the 17-race season for Andretti Green Racing. Franchitti, who was in second place on the final lap, crossed the finish line in first place and secured the championship as Scott Dixon ran out of fuel in Turn 3 on the final lap of the 200-lap event.

The entire 2008 IndyCar Series schedule has not been announced. Several key race dates have been set including the Honda Grand Prix of St. Petersburg (April 6) and the Indianapolis 500 (May 25).

Kyle Moyer, Race Strategist, #26 NYSE Dallara/Honda/Firestone:

"We're all just glad Marco appears to be okay. It's an unfortunate end to our season. We had a pretty good car today and Marco was running well but we're all happy Marco is okay."
