Dear NYX Shareholder,

In connection with our upcoming merger with Euronext N.V., we are writing to inform you that we will be changing transfer agents effective February 20, 2007. Our new transfer agent will be Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc.

On approximately February 23, 2007, you will receive a communication from Computershare providing you with details regarding their services as well as a new account statement showing your current position and your new account number that you will need when communicating with Computershare.

For those of you who hold restricted NYX stock, Computershare will also provide information regarding the upcoming release of the lock-up of a portion of the restricted shares.

In order to make the transition to Computershare as smooth as possible, we are providing you in advance with contact information so you have it available at the time of conversion. Please direct your inquiries to Computershare on and after February 20th as their staff will not have access to your shareholder information nor will they be able to process any transactions prior to February 20th.

If you require assistance prior to February 20th, please continue to contact Wells Fargo (866-230-3259).

Computershare Contact Information – Please use beginning February 20, 2007.
