Andretti Finishes 18th at Mid-Ohio in NYSE Car

LEXINGTON, Ohio (July 22, 2007) – Marco Andretti, driver of the NYSE car, was caught up in an accident on the opening lap of the Honda 200 at Mid-Ohio and finished 18th.

Starting from the fourth position, Andretti made an attempt to pass teammates Tony Kanaan and Danica Patrick for the second position and was hit from the side, causing the NYSE car to flip onto its top. Andretti walked away from the accident and was uninjured.

Scott Dixon won his third-consecutive race but still trails Dario Franchitti in the IndyCar Series championship. AGR drivers Franchitti, Tony Kanaan and Danica Patrick finished second, fourth and fifth, respectively.

Following a weekend hiatus, the IndyCar Series schedule resumes Sunday, Aug. 5, from Michigan International Speedway. ESPN2 will provide live broadcast coverage of the Firestone Indy 400 beginning at 12 p.m. (EDT). The race can also be heard live on XM Satellite Radio channel 145, the exclusive home of the IndyCar Series.

Marco Andretti, #26 NYSE Dallara/Honda/Firestone:

"We all can't fit through a corner and it's a bummer when people aren't on it on the starts because then things just get crazy. I tried to go around on the outside and that wasn't going to work because there was no room. I saw Danica (Patrick) and Tony (Kanaan) and I thought she was off the track, so I went all the way to the right to avoid contact and unfortunately that didn't work either. It happens but it's a real bummer for the NYSE team because we had a race-winning car today."

Kyle Moyer, Race Strategist, #26 NYSE Dallara/Honda/Firestone:

"This is really disappointing. We're all happy that Marco is going to be okay and that's the most important thing. We felt like the NYSE car was capable of winning today. The car was getting quicker and quicker all weekend and this is just disappointing."
