Date: October 28, 2009
Audience: NYSE Amex Options Traders
Subject: NYSE Amex Options Outage

Summary

On Tuesday, October 27, 2009, NYSE Amex options experienced operational outages in the matching engine, which impacted symbols I-M, starting at 09:30 am ET. At 09:44 am ET the matching engine was failed over to a back up engine and was back up for trading by 10:23 am ET. NYSE Amex options identified the source of the problem, implemented a solution, and we do not expect further outages for today's trading.
