* The Allocation Decision form is to be submitted to the New York Stock Exchange staff within 24 hours after Specialist Interviews have been completed. If a listing company meets with any of its specialist units on the last Exchange business day of the week, it shall make its decision no later than 2:30pm that day. If trading of the company's shares is to occur the same week as the Specialist Interviews, the company must submit this decision form on the day prior to trading, at the latest.
