

FACTS YOU CAN TRADE ON:

455 MILLION
BLOCK SHARES
TRADED PER DAY.

The exchange for traders who think big. No other trading venue comes close to offering the amount of client buy and sell block liquidity that is available on the NYSE. The sheer number of those block shares traded is even more impressive if you compare it to other trading venues and dark pools, many of which don't even trade blocks. In fact, in a recent survey of more than 30 dark pools, most had an average trade size of less than 500 shares.* So, if you're looking for the market that knows blocks better than anyone else, with more ways to trade them, look no further than the NYSE. The biggest exchange on the block. When you know the facts, you know NYSE Euronext's got you covered.
