Section 303A.06	Applicable Exemption
Securities Exchange Act Rule 10A-3 (“Rule 10A-3”) Audit Committee Requirements
State in column (2) whether the Company or any individual member of its audit committee is relying on a Rule 10A-3 exemption and provide a brief description of the basis for such reliance, a citation to the relevant portion of Rule 10A-3 and the name of the individual claiming the exemption, if applicable.

Rule 10A-3 exemptions for a domestic company¹:

Rule 10A-3(b)(1)(iv)(A) – This provision provides a transitional exemption for a company listing in connection with an initial public offering of securities. Note: If this exhibit is being filed with the Domestic Company Section 303A Annual Written Affirmation, the Company must provide the location of the required Rule 10A-3(d) disclosures on Exhibit G.

Rule 10A-3(b)(1)(iv)(B) – This provision provides an exemption to allow an otherwise independent director who serves on the board of directors of both a listed company and an affiliate to serve on the audit committee of the listed company.

Rule 10A-3(b)(1)(iv)(F) – This provision provides that the Securities and Exchange Commission may grant a director an exemption from the independence requirements of Rule 10A-3.

Rule 10A-3(c)(1) – This provision provides a general exemption from the requirement to have an audit committee where the company is listing securities but satisfies the requirements of Rule 10A-3 with respect to another class of securities already listed on a national securities exchange or national securities association.

Rule 10A-3(c)(2) – This provision provides a general exemption from the requirement to have an audit committee for subsidiaries that are listed on a national securities exchange or market where the subsidiary’s parent company satisfies the requirements of Rule 10A-3 with respect to a class of equity securities already listed on a national securities exchange or market and the subsidiary:

- is directly or indirectly consolidated by the parent; or
- is at least 50% beneficially owned.

This exemption does not apply to a subsidiary that has issued equity securities, other than non-convertible, non-participating preferred securities.
